WORKFORCE CENTRAL FLORIDA TO HOST CAREER STRATEGY SEMINARS

ORLANDO, FL ... WORKFORCE CENTRAL FLORIDA [WCF] will host several career strategy seminars throughout the next four months for degreed professionals who are unemployed and underemployed in Orange, Osceola, Lake, Seminole and Sumter counties. The courses will take place from 9am to 4pm on April 7, May 5, June 2 and July 7 at 1097 Sand Pond Road in Lake Mary, and from 9am to 4pm on April 21, May 19 and June 23 at 7200 Lake Ellenor Drive, Suite 205 in Orlando.

Seminar presenter Ginger McGraw will discuss career strategies focusing on resume and cover letter development, networking techniques, interview skills and negotiation strategies at the free events. McGraw is a career coach with over 14 years of experience in working with individuals in career transition.

Seating is limited and advance registration is required to attend the free courses. For locations and times or to register, call Cindy Durkos at (407) 531-1222, ext. 2078 or email cdurkos@wcfla.com.

“WCF is continuously trying to offer Central Florida job seekers the tools they need to advance professionally and successfully find employment opportunities,” said WCF President & CEO Gary Earl. “This type of seminar gives them an advantage that they may not otherwise have.”

In addition, WCF offers alternative courses for non-degreed professionals in Central Florida on topics such as developing a career path, resume writing, discovering skills and strengths, PC 101, exploring the job market and others. Additional information on these courses is available by contacting individual ONE-STOP CAREER CENTERS at 1-800-757-4598.
